Designed around your space

Every health and wellbeing environment has its own identity, which is why customisation has always been part of the Void Acoustics approach. Across multiple product ranges, bespoke RAL colour matching, signature KROME metallic finishes and the Natural Wood Collection provide the flexibility to complement interior palettes, architectural details and brand identity. Whether designed to blend seamlessly into a space or become a defining visual feature, every finish is created to support the overall experience.

VOID

Naturally distinctive

Available for the Venu Series, the Natural Wood Collection introduces carefully crafted Barewood and Vintage finishes for spaces where materials are as important as performance. Built to the same acoustic and structural standards as every Venu enclosure, these real wood finishes bring warmth and character to premium health and wellbeing interiors.
